Description

A good quality Victorian compactum wardrobe. c1890. This elegant wardrobe is made of solid ash wood. To the top is an architectural style pediment, over a dentil frieze. Below is a single mirrored door, which opens to reveal a fitted interior with an arrangement of three linen slides, having three drawers under, each with brass flush handles. Flanking this are two panelled doors, each with pretty carved panels to the top, depicting floral and foliate designs, which open to reveal hanging space interiors, having metal hanging rails, with brass hooks to the back and sides also to one side. Standing on a plinth base. The condition is very good antique condition, with minor expected general signs of age and use. Some evidence of historical woodworm to the right side plinth base, only very minor, shown in the pictures and has been treated, only as a precaution, as obviously historical. The wardrobe breaks down into five sections. Very solid sturdy and strong. The dimensions are. Height-221cm. Width-185cm including cornice. Width-173cm of main body. Depth-46cm of main body. Internal measurements of the two outer cupboards. Width-55cm. Depth-42cm. Height-174c...
