A Large 1930's Statue of an African Man

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA310150*Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

A truly striking green hard stone bust of a African man. The African artists with more highly advanced skills seem to gravitate to depicting people. Carvers from the southern African Shona, Xhosa and Ndebele tribes, residing mainly in Zimbabwe, South Africa, and Botswana create very attractive busts and full body carvings in Verdite, Serpentine, Rapoko and Africa stone. This older Shona man is carved from a piece of very dark green and black serpentine. Dimensions 54cm High 32cm Depth
