Description

Here are two excellent quality Victorian hall or dining chairs. With lovely tan leather and stud-work seat covering C1890. Made of oak, in the 17th century style. The hall or dining chairs have a lovely carved cresting, with barley twist side uprights. With a tan leather seat and back. The oak is a lovely rich warm medium colour. The tan leather has aged beautifully, so has lots of character. With wonderful stud-work in excellent condition. The chairs are in very good condition, with historical repairs to the crestings, the leather is in very good unworn condition with some signs of use, which again just adds to its lovely character. Very solid, sturdy and strong. I also have two large throne chairs of the same age and similar design, with the same seat covering, on a separate listing, shown in the pictures, available separately. The dimensions are. Hall chairs. Height-109cm. Width-48cm. Depth-45.5cm. VIEWING. Viewings are available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to make an appointment-thanks. DELIVERY.
