Description

Set of 8 Gothic Oak Dining Chairs in the Jacobean Style This Set of High Back Dining Chairs dates from around 1900, they may be continental in origin, the wood is a Golden Oak colour and the quality of the carving is first-class. The set has good very sturdy oak frames, the top rails and the front stretcher are carved with exaggerated swirls and the front legs are decorated with more. The chairs have flat cane or bergere woven backs and seats, the cane work on one of the carver chairs and the seats of all the chairs has been renewed some time ago, the other chairs have their original cane more or less intact but obviously the colour is darker but this will even up given time. The chairs are in very sound condition with no loose joints, they are in very good condition for their age, there is a small break on the bergere work of one of the carver chairs. The chairs are 50" high at the back, 20" across the front and seats are 18" high. The carver chairs are 52" high at the back, 23" across and the seat height is 18".
