Description

Antique Edwardian Mahogany Bureau Bookcase in the Regency Style and dating from around 1900 . Constructed from quality mahogany it has a broken Arched Pediment top inlaid with a satinwood stringing with a turned urn finial to the centre above a deep inlaid frieze. Below are two satinwood banded astragal glazed doors with original lock and working key and with two internal shelves. The base has a brass escutcheon to the cross banded and inlaid fall front which opens to reveal a very nice interior with six pigeon holes either side of a central door with inlaid shell to the centre and corners and with small brass handle. To either side there are two small drawers with inlaid banding and with small brass handles. Below the desk is one long mahogany lined drawer with brass handles and with pull out supports to either side. Below are two satinwood banded and beautifully inlaid doors with shell design inlay to the centre and internally is one shelf. The Bureau Bookcase stands on bracket feet and the top separates for ease of transporting Measures: 82" high x knee height 28" x 19" deep x (internal depth top) 9" x 31" wide. A most attractive Bureau Bookcase that is in good condition.
