SoldItem Reference: SA311167*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

A really wonderful set of three pierced or reticulated napkin rings made from a good gauge of sterling silver. The front of each has a vacant shield shaped cartouche. The three come complete with their original presentation box which is in superb condition, the box and the rings look as though they were never or rarely used, making them a highly sought-after collection today. Each has a full English hallmark for the highly collectible Chester assay office and the year 1913, making them true antique examples. Each ring measures 1 7/8" in diameter x 1 3/8" thick.
