

SA311193

Antique Watercolour Painting "Louvain" by C.J. Keats RBA

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA311193*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A charming signed Victorian English School watercolour townscape by the well listed artist C.J. Keats RBA. Dating from circa 1890. Depicting a Medieval view of "Louvain" in the Flemish region of Belgium. A busy scene with figures in traditional dress and market traders selling their wares. In the distance bats rise from a medieval belfry and smoke emanates from the chimney tops of houses below. A well-executed 19th Century painting by the well listed artist C.J Keats who specialised in architectural studies, continental street scenes and townscapes. Presented in an attractive glazed gilt frame. Construction/Materials: Watercolour on paper mounted and framed in glazed gilt wood frame Condition Report: Fair overall condition. Some foxing to the watercolour near the top. Some slight damage to the frame edges. Dimensions: Painting Width: 12 inches Painting Height: 19 inches Frame Width: 20 inches Frame Height: 27.5 inches

Seller Details

Antique Furniture Direct

Leeds Yorkshire United Kingdom By apointment only.

Tel: 07528 604 958

International Tel: +44 7528 604 958