Description

Early C19th Regency period mahogany centre pedestal occasional or lamp-table. Finely-proportioned elegant single-drawer table of free-standing symmetrical design. Reeded-edge top, with reeded decoration to shaped drawer-front. The single mahogany-lined shallow 'concealed' frieze drawer with scroll ends and paterae/draught terminals. The reverse with identical silhouette frieze. Raised on finely-turned column, onto quadripite concave base. Scrolled and moulded shaped legs of exaggerated form, with hipped paterae decoration, paterae-mounted inverted scroll toes with gilt-metal ball feet. Excellent condition and mellow patina, the top having benefitted from re-polishing some 20 years ago. Cleaned and waxed ready to use. (Inventory mark/initials painted to underside of top) H 29 " x W 26" x D 18 ". England c. 1820
