Description

A exceptional set of 10 Regency mahogany dining chairs. This very rare set of ten decorative dining chairs with exquisite and fine carvings. Having profusely carved decorative scroll and foliage back linked with ornately carved central rails with Prince of Wales feathers that fall down to a shall buttoned and contrast piped cream linen removable squab seat. The front seating is again ornately carved with the front legs being turned with decorative foliage carving to the tops and bottom. In very good condition these chairs have been wax polished and upholstered using traditional methods with any loose joints glued and secured. A stunning set of chairs that will be the talking point of any home.
