Description

A French Carved Panel from a Chateau Vineyard. This charming carved panel came from the south of France, the heraldic shield in the centre details a Crown over 3 Wheels and a Rampant Lion (obviously the ancestral Coat of Arms of the Vineyard). The remainder of the scene is of a grape gatherer, hood on his back and 2 charming ladies and vines both with the fruit on and picked. This is a very well executed piece, the panel is solid Chestnut, slightly rustic in shape as it maintains the natural curve of the tree it was cut from. The panel is in good condition, it is 1.5" thick, and 33" wide and 23" high at the highest point.
