Description

The natural camel-hair field in this beautiful little prayer rug contains, what I feel are, stylised 'trees-of-life' with squared-off leaves - more likely totemic symbols. There is a wonderful balance of vegetable colours and the thick pile is soft and luscious. Made by Timuri tribes in western Afghanistan during the last quarter of the 19th century, this is a fabulous and collectable little rug. Size: 1.37m x 0.90m (4' 6" x 3' 0").
