Description

This elegant GEORGIAN MAHOGANY WRITING TABLE in the GILLOWS STYLE dates from circa 1820. It stands on slender, turned legs finishing in the original rolled-edge, brass castors. The drawer, which has its key, is fitted with a baize-lined writing surface with a pen tray and inkwell spaces. The TABLE is a lovely colour and is very well proportioned. As can be seen from the photographs, it is capable of being free-standing as the back is polished. The TABLE is made of good quality timber. Height: 30 inches (76 cm) Width: 28 inches (71 cm) Depth: 21.75 inches (55.5 cm)
