Large Silver Plated Serving Tray

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA315772*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

Dating to about 1880 this large silver plated serving tray is decorated with acorns and oak leaves - the regimental emblems of "The Cheshire Regiment". It was gifted to a retiring member of the regiment by the Sergeants Mess in about 1903. It has been re-plated at some stage and has a small crack in one of the handles but otherwise is an impressive piece of late Victorian plate. Size: Handle to Handle - 28.5" (72cms) Width across - 18.5" (47cms) Weight - 3.5kg (7.5 lbs)
