Description

An attractive and good quality PAIR of mid/late 19th century Victorian period mahogany "LIBRARY" ARMCHAIRS in fine condition. Recently upholstered in ivory-coloured brocade, these good chairs feature carved and upholstered arms and are supported on nicely carved cabriole front legs, with a carved front frieze, and carved 'knopped' feet. There are plain cabriole legs to the rear, which means that the chairs not only stand well, but are also very comfortable. Priced for the pair.
