Description

C19th Italian "Sorrento" inlaid parquetry occasional table. Finely-inlaid octagonal tripod-base table with 16-pointed concentric star design parquetry top with multiple fruit-wood specimen inlays. 'Greek-key' type inlay to the border, banded and inlaid edge and inlaid detail to the turned column and shaped triple supports. Sorrento, Italy, on the coast of the Bay of Naples, has had an industry producing inlaid marquetry and parquetry wares since the C16th. Good mellow patina, slight shrinkage creases to the top. Original condition with no losses. W 25.5" H 25.5" Sorrento, Italy c. 1870
