Description

Large and Superb Porcelain and Ormolu Clock Set, A. D. Mougin ~ French - Circa 1900 ~ ~ Excellent condition, fully restored ~ ~ A large and stunning Ormolu (gilt bronze) clock set mounted with exquisite Sèvres style porcelain. It is Rococo in style, a bold balloon shape with sweeping 'C' scrolls, floral swags, dolphins and a flaming torche to the finial. The delicately painted panel to the front shows a charming scene of a young man serenading a lady in a country setting. Candelabra are similarly styled with twirling branches carrying four lights. The central sconce has the Rococo snuffers as finials. Porcelain urns depict the happy young couple with country scenes to the panels in the bases. The ormolu is in lovely original condition, with a bright and clean finish. The large dial is porcelain painted, beautifully painted with a village scene. It is complete with original fretted brass hands and Rococo bezel. The French movement is by A. D. Mougin and is of the makers usual high quality. We have fully overhauled the movement including rigorous testing to ensure trouble-free running for you. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves...
