Description

A pair of well made late Victorian - early 20thC brass barley twist candlesticks in solid brass. They still have the original cast iron bases both covered in the old felt, and different colours suggesting one base was recovered at a later stage. The candlesticks are in good condition and measure 25cm in height with 7.5cm square bases. The price includes postage and packaging within the UK mainland only and for remote parts or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote.
