Description

A gents late 1930s Omega wrist watch. The watch has a hand-winding movement, calibre 23.4, which is ticking away nicely and the time keeping is good to within around two minutes over 24 hours. The movement is signed Omega, Swiss and it has the serial number 9,008,769 which dates it back to around 1939. The watch measures 30mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. Although designed to be worn by a man, it is a smaller size which would suit a slimmer wrist. The stainless steel case is in good condition with just the odd minor mark. The inside of the case back has the Omega triangular stamp. The winding crown is a later replacement. The lens is in good condition. The signed dial has some marking but is acceptable for a 1930s piece. Handsome feuille shaped hands, red centre seconds and a red centre seconds. A new black leather strap has been fitted.
