Description

An antique George III sterling silver salver with links to Norton in Durham. The salver measures 26cm diameter and weighs 535g (approximately 18½ oz). It has good clear hallmarks on the underneath for London 1800 with a maker's mark for John Munns (note his initials are upside down in relation to the rest of the hallmark; this was quite normal for John Munns). The top of the salver has later engraving and the text reads, "Presented to the Rev J M St Clere Raymond by the labouring class of the Parish of Norton as a farewell token of their esteem and regards, Sep 7th 1847". Reverend St Clere Raymond was listed as the Curate of Norton, Durham in The Clergy List of 1841. Overall the condition of the salver is good for its age; one of the feet has an old solder repair and there is some unevenness around the rim. PRICE INCLUDES WORLDWIDE POSTAGE
