

SA318684

A red tortoiseshell French mantel clock, Circa 1880

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA318684*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A fine quality French Clock by Vincenti & Co of Paris, circa 1880 - retailed by Hampton & Sons London. The finely figured red tortoiseshell case with cast brass ormolu mounts. Price: £1600 Height: 15.5" Width 7.5" at the widest point Depth: 5" The elegant waisted red tortoiseshell case with fine quality original gilded brass mounts. The tortoiseshell in perfect condition with beautiful shine and patina. The enamelled convex dial decorated in a cartouche style with Roman and Arabic numerals. The fully restored 8 day spring driven pendulum movement with Brocot device for adjusting the time keeping. Striking the hours and the passing of the half hour on a curled blued steel gong. Blued steel hands. The movement has been expertly restored by our FBHI & Clockmakers Company awarded horologist to the highest level with a 2 year mechanical guarantee. Delivery be arranged, please contact us for details/price depending on location. For further details about us please visit our website www.storyclocks.co.uk

Seller Details

FJ & RD Story Antique Clocks

The Old Vicarage Highthorn Road Kilnhurst South Yorkshire S64 5TX
United Kingdom

Tel: 07899 751 446 or 01709 589 736

International Tel: +44 7899 751 446 or +44 1709 589736