Description

A wonderful and highly decorative pair of late Victorian Chambersticks made in silver plate by the top-notch silversmith, James Dixon & Sons. Both are marked within the candle sconce and have a removable drip tray for easy cleaning. Both also retain their original snuffers which fit into a hole on each handle. They both retain their original silver plate in excellent condition without loss apart from natural wear on the underside of each. A lovely pair in excellent condition dating to around 1880. 6" in diameter or 7" including handle x 3 1/4" tall. Item ID: 36185 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
