Description

This late 19th / early 20th century piece is a really good buy! It is excellent quality- made as an exact copy of a Georgian piece and of nice small proportions. The cornice is cross banded with a Greek key pattern moulding. The bookcase has 3 completely adjustable shelves, the drawer has pretty brass handles and is oak lined and the cupboard below has pretty panelled doors and is cross banded. It also has a shelf. The doors both have the original keys. It stands on bracket feet. The storage space is excellent as it is narrow but high. A good looking piece! 37"(94cm) wide Max depth under 16" (49cm) Height 85" (215cm). It is a superb size.
