Description

A particularly pretty and unusual perfume globe shaped bottle, made from heavy English Crystal beautifully cut with the ever-popular hobnail design. What is so unusual and special about this example is the highly decorative silver fittings, the hinged top lid being pierced or reticulated, the silver flowing down the shoulders of the bottle, all beautifully engraved with floral and foliate vignettes. The hinged lid opens to reveal the tiny glass stopper still intact to keep the precious contents from evaporating. The silver is fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1910, Edwardian in era together with the initials for the well renowned silversmith, Henry Matthews.
