Description

Large Victorian Solid Pine Mule Chest. This Unusual Chest has been made from a carpenter's tool box, it has had 3 drawers added to make it a very useful piece, the storage inside the chest is quite obviously shallow but still useful but even more useful are the drawers allowing the chest to be accessed without clearing the top. The top of the box has a deep moulded edge, it has blacksmith made strap hinges and carrying handles. The chest has been hand stripped and waxed and is good clean condition with only the usual dings you would expect to find on a Victorian piece. All this convenient storage and a strong seat in the hall or it will double up as a very useful coffee table in another location. The box it measures 34" wide x 20" deep and stands 20" high.
