SoldItem Reference: SA321269*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

A fine 18th century ENGLISH BRACKET CLOCK by Thomas Willmore of London. The beautiful mahogany case retains its original set of 5 cast finials with pierced ormolu decoration to the inverted bell top. To the side are twin cast brass carrying handles and ormolu caryatids either side of the door. The 8-day verge movement strikes hours on a bell, repeating at will via a pull cord, and features a finely engraved backplate. The dial is superb, with "Strike/Silent" control in the arch; third calendar hand with engraved dates to the inside edge of the silvered chapter-ring and engraved signature to the silvered cartouche. Full working order and guaranteed at least 2 years.
