Description

This is a sweet little table of lovely proportions with turned legs and pad feet. It is a country made piece with real character. It has an oak top and drawer which is oak lined and fruitwood legs and pine ends. It is absolutely right - obviously being made from the indigenous woods available. The brass handles are period but old replacements. It has a nice old patina. Needs to be seen - the photos do not do it justice. It is 27" wide (69 cm) 17" deep (43cm) 28" high (71cm)
