Description

Pair of French Curtains, Woollen Celtic Hand Woven. These are a remarkable pair of long wool curtains, the fabric is hand woven, and the designs are typical Celtic designs, the curtains date from the 19th Century and come from Brittany. The curtains are in very good condition, almost perfect, despite their age. The curtains can be viewed from both sides, obviously the colours are reversed they are each 48" wide and 98" long, including the fringes and they come with their original 3" wooden curtain rings. Colours are difficult in pictures, but the pictures of the curtains folded are in natural daylight and very accurate and you can see both sides. The curtains are 98" long, and 48" wide.
