SoldItem Reference: SA323071*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A wonderful example of a novelty late Victorian travel inkwell in the form of a globe made by covering the metal base with paper sections to create a globe. This one is in superb condition as may have much of the paper covering missing. The sprung lid is opened by a concealed button at the front to reveal a single ink chamber again with sprung lid and a removable ink chamber. Next to this is a red bristle pen or nib wipe. Dating to around 1900, measuring approximately 2" in diameter. Item ID: 36252 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
