Description

A Victorian oil on canvas by Daniel Sherrin depicting a shepherd with sheep within a woodland setting at sunset. Housed in the original double swept gilt wood and gesso frame, signed to the bottom left English circa 1880-1900. Dimensions: Frame 30" high x 40" wide Painting 19" high x 29" wide Condition: This painting is in excellent original condition. Daniel Sherrin was the son of John Sherrin, and the father of R.D. Sherrin who were also artists (a picture by the latter is shown elsewhere on Prolific artist painting Landscapes and beach landscapes. Flourished c1895-1915. This may be a pseudonym for the well listed artist Benjamin Williams Leader. Sherrin was born in Brentford, Essex and moved to Ramsgate when he was a boy. Later he lived in Seasalter near Whitstable where he died. Initially he apparently primarily painted seascapes, but later turned mainly to landscapes. His paintings were sometimes used for book illustrations and engravings and a scene entitled 'In the Highlands' can be seen in 'British Highways and Byways from a Motor Car' by Thomas D. Murphy published in 1908. A picture of Sandringham was commissioned from him by King George V and hangs in Buckin...
