Description

HENRI JACOT: a good late 19th century French CARRIAGE CLOCK, in fine original condition. Housed within its high quality 'Corniche' case, with bevelled glass panels, the eight-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a gong and retains its original lever platform escapement, whilst the white enamel dial is in good condition and the blued steel "spade" hands are original. Numbered 17179, this clock is complete with its original (distressed) leather travelling case and the original numbered winding key. Guaranteed at least two years.
