Description

A superb quality Edwardian glazed display cabinet. This very elegant cabinet has an astragal, individually bevelled glass, glazed front, with a single door to the centre, opening to reveal two glass shelves for displaying. The back and bottom of the cabinet is lined with gold velvet. To the top is an elegant shaped up-stand, having satinwood cross-banded inlay. Below is a very pretty inlaid frieze, with pretty swag and bow motifs. The glazing bars to the front of the cabinet are again cross-banded using satinwood, showing excellent quality. With a shaped front apron over a shaped, shelf under-tier, giving more space to display items. Standing on four elegant tapering cross-banded legs. The up-stand can be removed for ease of moving and transporting. In excellent original antique condition, minimal signs of use. Very solid sturdy and strong. The dimensions are. Height including up-stand-162.5cm. To top of cabinet-153cm. Width-123cm. Depth-41cm. VIEWING. Viewings are available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to make an appointment-thanks.
