Description

Since being purchased in 1983 by its last owner, this attractive and desirable clock has been much loved and regularly serviced. We understand that it was last serviced in the summer of 2014 and so is offered in the best possible condition it could be. Slim and well proportioned 18th century mahogany and oak longcase with attractive Star Inlay to the long trunk door. The 10 inch Brass Dial with crisply defined Tulip Decoration amongst other fine features. The case, hood and brass dial are all original to each other. The 30 hour movement has at some stage been upgraded to an 8 day movement. Making it not only a very attractive clock but practical to use and enjoy.
