Description

A charming early 18th century oak and burr walnut chest of drawers. George I c1720. This beautifully figured chest has a projecting moulded cornice over five feather-banded drawers, having two short drawers over three graduating drawers. Lovely burr walnut figuring to each drawer. With elegant engraved brass handles and matching escutcheons, with original steel locks. Drawers are oak lined and of dove-tail construction. The top of the chest is particularly nice, having walnut quarter panel veneering, framed with feather-banding and cross-banded. Standing on bracket feet. The walnut is a wonderful rich warm colour, having developed a glowing patina over the centuries, very tactile. The condition overall is excellent antique condition, with general expected signs of use consistent with age. The dimensions are. Height-86.5cm. Width-99cm. Depth-58cm. VIEWING.
