Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A gorgeous pair of saddle-bags woven by Qashqa'i tribes around 1900. What is particularly charming is the back - where the weaver has subtly woven small quadrupeds - goats or gazelle - and surrounding the goats, are dancing ladies! Each face of the bag is woven in a tough brocade - suitable for the rough use this bag was probably subjected to! The complete bag is in near-mint condition with original loops and lappets. Size: 1.02m x 0.48m (3' 4" x 1' 7").
