Description

A gents Ingersoll Triumph wrist watch. The watch has a hand-winding movement which is ticking away and the time keeping is good to within around two minutes over 24 hours. The watch measures 32mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The plated case has some marks but overall the condition is very acceptable for a 1950s piece. The screw-on case back is stainless steel. The lens is in good condition. The dial has a great vintage look, full of character ... a contrasting dial with outer minute track, original hands and a centre seconds hand (it is very slightly out of shape but not too noticeable at all). There is a little marking to the dial but it is acceptable for a 1950s piece. A new dark green leather strap has been fitted; it complements the watch very nicely.
