Description

A fabulous Victorian Egg Cruet for Six, made from English silver plate and standing on four attractive foliate feet having been hand chased. The reverse side of each foot is lucky enough to have an English design registration diamond, they are hard to read but have dated the piece having been registered in June 1872, making this a true mid-Victorian example. The six egg cups are pierced or reticulated and stand on their individual pins on the stand and the six egg spoons fit into the cut-outs at the base of the handle. A quality example in superb condition, measuring 8" x 6" x 11" tall to top of handle. Item ID: 36143 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
