Description

A fine quality red lacquer Chinoiserie cocktail cabinet on silvered stand. Dating to the 1920's this lovely cocktail cabinet has a raised red lacquer finish in the Chinoiserie style. The top is also decorated which again show its quality, having a pair of doors with central engraved escutcheon plate with matching external hinges and corner plates. The doors open to reveal a fully lined cocktail interior with mirrored back two shaped glass shelves and glass base plate with pull out mirror slide for mixing drinks. The cabinet stands on a extremely ornate original wooden silver gilt base with central mask having carved and moulded frieze raised on shaped cabriole legs with acanthus carved leaf to the knee and carved pad foot. This antique cocktail cabinet is in first class condition and has been gently restored using traditional methods retaining its fabulous colour and decoration. This cabinet will add character to either a contemporary or traditional setting and looks great in the flesh.
