Description

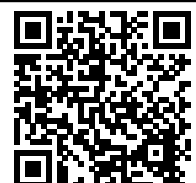

A Fine Regency mahogany cheval mirror raised of brass lion paw castors. This excellent cheval mirror is in wonderful original condition still retaining its original mercury glass plate (mirror) and brass lions paw castors. Constructed of extremely good quality mahogany timber with raised carved and turned finials having carved boxed reliefs below with central boxed reliefs running through from top to bottom. The original mercury glass plate is in lovely clean condition having a slight sparkle foxing to the edges with all the beauty of a 200 year old mirror would have held by a mahogany crossbanded surround with its untouched four panel backboard. It is held by its original turned wooden screw knobs which allow it to tilt and be held and is supported and raised on it mahogany frame raised on carved splay legs terminating on brass lion paw castors. This cheval is in impressive original condition having been gently cleans and polished using a traditional method with a beautiful mellow mahogany colour and striking grain. Well proportioned being full standing height making the mirror work in any setting. Dimensions: Width: 29 1/4 inches 74.5 cm Height: 70 inches - ...
