Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A handsome late Victorian solid English Oak and silver plated biscuit box, clearly a presentation piece with its trophy looks and dual vacant mounts to both front and back. The box stands on a turned solid Oak footed base mounted with silver plate. The lid once removed reveals the makers mark on the underside for KAYSER, ELLISON & CO. of Sheffield. The interior is lucky to retain the original creamware liner, intact and in excellent condition. Dating to the late Victorian era, around 1890, the box remains in superb condition.
