

SA327950

James Knowles London Bracket Clock

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA327950*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A quality English bracket clock. The original matching wall bracket giving the option of wall mounting or on a sideboard/table etc without it. A fine rosewood case with detailed brass inlays. Stepped side columns with brass cappings. Gothic tapered finials to the top with brass inlay. Brass side sound fretwork panels with silk backing. A brass fretted rear door with old clockmakers repair labels from Watford, North London. A fine brass bezel with fluted edging and convex glass. A convex painted dial signed 'Jas. Knowles, London' with 'moon' hands. A quality double fusee mechanism striking the hours on a gong. A clever rise and fall pendulum fine adjuster at the top of the dial. Pendulum lock for transportation. James Knowles of London is recorded as working from 1832-1857. Clock height 24 " / 61 cms Width 15 " / 38 cms Depth 9 " / 23 cms. Wall bracket height 12" / 31cms.

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

