Description

A good quality Victorian compactum wardrobe. c1890. This elegant wardrobe is made of Walnut. To the top is a projecting moulded cornice. Below are three doors, one being a central mirrored door, which is original, and has bevelled glass. The first door on the left side opens to reveal a shelved area, having five shelves in total, so giving lots of storage space. To the left side are the double doors, which open to reveal a large hanging space, with several brass hooks to the back and sides, and long wooden hanging rail. To the top of the two outer doors are lovely carved, raised panels, depicting mythical dragons. These are beautifully and skillfully carved. Below the wardrobe section are two large, deep drawers, again giving lots of storage space. Retaining all the original handles and escutcheons. Standing on a plinth base. In very good original antique condition, with expected general signs of age and use. Knock to the left side carved panel, shown in the pictures. The wardrobe breaks down into four sections, making moving and transporting very easy. Easy to assemble. Very solid sturdy and strong. The dimensions are taken at highest, widest, deepest po...
