Description

A gents 1960s Lings wrist watch. The watch has a hand-winding movement which is ticking away and the time keeping is good to within around two minutes over 24 hours. The watch measures 36.5mm diameter excluding the winding crown, buttons and lugs. The gold tone case has some marks commensurate with its age but still acceptable. The lens is in lovely condition with just a small 1mm scratch towards the bottom. The dial is signed Lings 21 Prix, AntiMagnetic, System. It is in nice condition. There is a subsidiary dial at the number 9 o'clock position although it is really just cosmetic, it does not record time as a chronograph would, the hand merely moves round as the hour and minute hands move. The centre seconds hand can be stopped and started by way of the buttons either side of the winding crown (this also stops the movement from ticking). A new brown leather strap has fitted. PRICE INCLUDES WORLDWIDE SHIPPING
