Description

An excellent quality solid oak Victorian twin pedestal desk c1890. This very elaborate and striking desk has a four small drawer superstructure, with central shelf. Over an inset green leather and gold tooled writing surface. Below are twin pedestals, having nine drawers in total, with one long central drawer, and four graduating drawers to each pedestal. The drawer fronts are decorated with profusely carved Lion mask handles, surrounded by scrolls. All original locks are present. The desk is constructed entirely from solid oak, making it very heavy and robust. Lovely rich warm colour to the oak, with a glowing warm patina. The pedestals stand on a plinth base, and original castors. In excellent antique condition, having general expected signs of use, but very minor. No Key. Dismantles to four parts, so very easy to transport and move. The dimensions are. Height-97.5cm to top of superstructure. Height-75.5cm to top of desk. Width-136cm. Depth-73.5cm. Kneehole dimensions. Height-58cm. Width-55.5cm. VIEWING. Viewing is available at our showroom in Kent, please call us to arrange an appointment-thanks. COLLECTION. Collections in person are very welcome, we a...
