Description

A stunning and particularly fine quality French OVAL CARRIAGE CLOCK in perfect working order. The oval case is superb, being profusely hand-engraved throughout including the shaped handle, whilst the 8-day movement, which retains its original platform escapement, strikes hours and half-hours on a gong, repeating hours at will. It also features alarm work in perfect order, whilst the two enamel dials, set within their gilt engine-turned mask, are perfect. Signed: "B" in a circle, possibly produced by the firm of Brunelot. Engraved oval carriage clocks are quite rare; this is a gorgeous example.
