Price

SoldItem Reference: SA329640*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

A wonderful quality, large and heavy mid/late 19th century DECANTER CASE in superb condition. The box itself is veneered in the finest beautifully-figured coromandel wood and bound with brass, with recessed military-style brass handles inset into the sides. The lid opens to reveal the four original large cut-glass decanters and stoppers sitting within the original purple velvet lining. These decanters are perfect ~ no chips or cracks. Victorian quality at its very best!
