Description

This is a very pretty circular Edwardian trinket box standing firmly on four feet. The lid of the box is decorated with a single rose amongst its leaves and buds, it is in lovely condition and closes well. The inside base is a light velvet brown lining and has slots for rings and a dipped section for chains. It's in very good condition with full hallmarks for Birmingham 1909 and has the makers mark for T H Hazlewood & Co. Overall this trinket box is a lovely item and would be great for a Christening present or would look lovely on a dressing table to keep special treasures in.
