AN OPAQUE GLASS CEILING LIGHT

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA331252*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

This early 20thC opaque glass ceiling light has a drum shape centre with a tiered base, and is lit by a single bulb inside. The brass top has a hint of the old copper finish giving it a lovely colour, with a hook at the top for easy fitting to any ceiling. The light measures approximately 40cm in length without any chain being added at the top, and approximately 33cm in width. It is in excellent condition, and has recently been rewired by a qualified electrician. The price includes postage and packing within the UK mainland only.
