Description

This antique William IV mahogany Chiffonier is in good original condition & is a real character piece of furniture. This piece dates to around the 1830-40's period & those distinctive William IV features, especially the top carving, the feet & the shaped drawer. The drawer front & the panels are all flame mahogany. The brass beading between the doors is original as is the lock. Please enlarge all the images to inspect the finish. There are lots of old markings & indentations in the wood, so if you like your antiques looking new, this piece won't be for you. Width - 36", 92 cm Depth - 16.5", 42 cm Height - 51.5, 131 cm
