Description

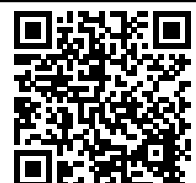

Still retaining a wonderful surface and colour, this iconic; often thought of as originally coming from the workshops of James Shoolbred in the Tottenham Court Road, London, and comfortable late Victorian revolving desk chair has been restored and refurbished to the highest standards. The bearings within the revolving mechanism have been replaced, and the original castors refurbished - this chair spins beautifully. The leather seat has been newly upholstered with a high quality hide and the oak frame sensitively restored and polished. Measurements - Width (widest point) - 25" Height 35" Height (top of the seat) - 18" Please contact us by email or phone if you require any further details. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers. We do strive to accurately describe and illustrate our stock within the 'Selling Antiques' website. However we do understand that it is not always possible to judge from photographs how an item will look within the home or garden....
