Description

A very good quality antique mid 19th Century carved and bleached console table with shaped marble top. This lovely quality and decorative console table is adorned with carvings with a later shaped grey marble top having a breakfronted top with carved frieze and central carving motif all held by cabriole shaped front supported and pilaster style rear supports raised on gadrooned feet untied by a shaped stretcher. It has a lovely faded bleached colour which is how it was naturally found in very good condition, with a decent mirror above will work in any setting either contemporary or traditional.
